

On the heels of the colonial era came 19th Century, or Victorian Design. Once reserved only for the wealthy, elaborate ornamentation became available due to craftsmen arriving from Europe - craftsmen "schooled" in fine wood carving and ornate plastering. Elegant and flamboyant, these mouldings and medallions reflect the architecture loved by Queen Victoria of 19th Century England.

Victorian Society in America

Pea Pod & Vine Crown and Block - #19220 & 19228

Eastlake Crown and Block #19210 & 19218

Mille Fleur Crown and Block #19240 & 19248

Cavetto Lucia Crown #19260

Capitol Hill Scotia Crown #19270

Ivy Leaves Crown - #19230

Larman/Brown Spangler Medallion #81727

Clements Schmidt House Medallion #81816

Thomas/Arnett House Medallion #82238

Renaissance Revival Medallion #82439

